AMERICA WILL FACE FUTURE WITH COURAGE

President-elect Harding Sees
No Reason for Pessimism or Despair

MINIMIZE WASTE CRYING NEED

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—En route with President-elect Harding for Panama—"Though reverses and discouragement may lie ahead America will fight courageously and win out," Senator Harding said in discussing the economic situation here today. He issued the warning that new burdens may be borne and thrift learned anew. "With hundred per cent. production and minimized waste we may make firm reconstruction and establish sure footing," he said. "There is no reason for pessimism or despair."

He urged friendly relations with all the nations of the western hemisphere.

ALLIED POWERS ARE AGAINST KING 'TINO'

ATHENS, Nov. 17.—The resignation of Premier Venizelos has been made public. The majority leaders speak of the restoration of former King Constantine as an accomplished fact.

"Constantine is our rightful king," former Premier Gounaris, leader of the successful party in the Greek elections, told the correspondent today, "and we expect him back as soon as a plebiscite is held showing that the people want him."

PARIS, Nov. 18.—Great Britain and France will not recognize the Greek government, headed by King Constantine, the French foreign office announced today. The two countries, as guarantors of the Greek kingdom are entitled to determine the character of the government there, the announcement said.

DIAZ AND CARRANZA BOTH HEROES IN MEXICO NOW

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18.—(United Press).—Mexico has no hall of fame in which to display her heroes—heroes who are never deemed such until they are dead. But there are half a dozen vendors of plaster of Paris statuettes, men who wend their way through the capital's streets, displaying their wares on the sidewalks. Not only do they set the styles in heroes, as they place a new bust on the market from time to time, but they provide an interesting insight into the fickle reactions of a revolutionary public.

A year or so ago there appeared the plaster likeness of Don Porfirio Diaz, the president whose overthrow raised the nation-wide cry of revolutionary liberty. Don Porfirio's bust found a ready sale. He is a hero now. There have been many revolutions since Don Porfirio's time. The other day the statue vendors placed a new bust on the sidewalk. The face was familiar, as the original had been one of the best liked men in Mexico. There were whiskers, fully moulded in the plaster. It was Venustiano Carranza.

ERIE JUDGE SENTENCES FOUR MEN TO DIE

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 16.—"The world is better off without men like you." This was the declaration made by Judge Uriah P. Rosier yesterday morning when he pronounced the death sentence on William Strogan, Albert Tremmell, Hulton Hudson, colored, and Stephen Schoppe, Roumanian.

They were convicted last Wednesday of murder in the first degree for the killing of Saima Florain, while they were robbing a boarding house.

In the history of Erie county but nine men have been sentenced to death including the four yesterday morning, and now six men under the death sentence are awaiting execution here.

Dick Karachner, of Woodland, spent yesterday at the home of Charles Young on West Front street.

MEXICO BIDS FOR WORLD'S COMMERCE

Hopes To Stimulate Manufacturing in Mexico By Establishing Free Ports

NEW LAW IN EFFECT TODAY

By RALPH H. TURNER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18.—(By Mail).—Mexico's newest bid for an increased international commerce, represented by the creation of "free zones" on both the east and west coasts, has just become a law. This movement, sponsored by Secretary of the Treasury Alvarado and enacted into law by a decree over the signature of President De la Huerta, provides that Guaymas and Salina Cruz, on the west coast and Puerto Mexico, on the east, shall be converted into free ports.

According to its official backers, the project will stimulate manufacturing within Mexico, at the same time promoting the country's foreign trade. During the discussion of the proposition, heavy opposition was aroused. Many of its opponents declared the idea was impractical and simply represented the desire of certain government leaders to promote their private interests. Regardless of its merits, however, the project is interesting because of its proposed relation to the commerce of North and South America, as well as Europe and Asia.

The central idea of the plan has been directed toward utilizing the narrow strip of territory known as the isthmus of Tehuantepec, which is traversed through the states of Vera Cruz and Oaxaca by the Tehuantepec Railway, with Salina Cruz and Puerto Mexico as its termini. Mexican officials assert that by converting both of these cities into free ports the isthmus can be made a center of foreign trade in the Western Hemisphere, second only to the Panama Canal. Thus, by the terms of the law, free zones will be established surrounding the ports, customs formalities will be suspended, and merchandise which is in transit, or which is to be re-exported outside the country, will be admitted free of duty.

The officials believe that the zone will then serve as assembling place for raw materials which may be turned into manufactured product within the zones, thus upbuilding national industry. The Tehuantepec Railway, it is hoped, will serve as a logical medium for the transit and distribution of merchandise between North and South America and Europe and the Orient. Bonded ware houses will form one feature of the new program.

Guaymas, it is pointed out, also has been made a free port because its location in the Gulf of California in the northern state of Sonora, gives it a position of vantage with respect to North American and Asiatic commerce. Guaymas also is the southern terminus of the Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico, which would be expected to transport raw product from northwestern Mexico, developing Guaymas as a manufacturing and exporting center.

The decree provides that the free ports of Salina Cruz and Puerto Mexico, as well as the Tehuantepec Railway, be placed under the administration of a single board of directors, to be named by the government.

PASQUALE PLEADS GUILTY TO MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE

NORRISTOWN, Nov. 17.—August Pasquale, "the crank" self-confessed kidnaper and slayer of 13-month-old Blakely Coughlin, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and also guilty to an indictment in kidnapping for extortion when placed on trial today in the Montgomery county court, Judge A. S. Swartz directed District Attorney F. X. Reninger to present testimony. Then the commonwealth rapidly placed witnesses on the stand who described the events following the abduction. There was a large crowd in the courtroom and among those in attendance was the mother of the missing child.

Charlie Young entertained a number of his friends last evening at his home on West Front street.

Seeking Its Level

MAHAFFEY-M'GEES ROAD WILL SOON BE IN SHAPE

Representatives of the State Highway Department were in Clearfield yesterday in conference with New York Central officials relative to the proposed improvement of the Mahaffey-McGee's Mills road. This two mile stretch of road has been in very bad shape and a movement for its permanent improvement was made by the Clearfield County Good Roads Association shortly after its organization nearly two years ago. The campaign for the road has continued steadily ever since that time and it now looks as though the project would go through in the early spring.

The road between the two points named has been badly encroached upon by both the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads and this fact alone has had much to do with holding up the improvement thus far. This objection or handicap has been or is about to be disposed of and it is likely bids for the building of the road will be asked for in time to have contracts for same let early in the coming year.

State Highway Department representatives met Pennsylvania officials on the ground some two weeks ago and pointed out to them what was necessary to be done by that railroad in order to make the improvement of the highway possible. The Pennsylvania officials agreed to the Highway Department's program and yesterday's meeting with the New York Central officials will undoubtedly result in similar action by the N. Y. C. and thus a long-drawn out battle by the people in the region affected bids fair to end most satisfactorily to all concerned.

METHODISTS SET NEW MISSIONARY RECORD

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The largest number of new missionaries ever sent to foreign fields in any one year in the history of the Methodist Episcopal church were sent during the fiscal year ending November 1st, 1920, according to announcement today by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church here. The largest previous year was 1917, when 96 recruits were appointed and sent out by the Methodists. During the fiscal year just concluded, 275 new missionaries were appointed, of which 30 were assigned to South America, 69 to China, 50 to India and Burma, 30 to Malaya, 6 to Mexico, 5 to Japan, 2 to Korea and 2 to Europe. The list does not include relief workers in European war areas.

GEORGE M. ROSSER'S FATHER DEAD

W. M. Rosser, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Clinton county, died at the home of his son in Mill Hall on Monday last, aged 81 years.

The deceased was the father of George M. Rosser, of Clearfield, and is also survived by two other sons residing in Mill Hall.

SURPRISED THEIR PASTOR

New Millport, Nov. 15, 1920
Editor Progress,
Clearfield, Pa.

Dear Sir: Please give space in your valuable paper to the following:

The Lutheran parsonage was the scene of a happy gathering Friday evening last when the Adult Bible classes of the church met for the purpose of tendering their pastor, Rev. Edwin Dingman, a birthday surprise party.

The reverend gentleman was completely surprised, but recovered in time to do ample justice to the good things the guests brot with them.

The occasion was very much enjoyed by all present and the guest of honor received heartiest congratulations upon his attaining another milestone on life's journey.

The following were present: Rev. H. L. Jarrett, Mrs. Jarrett and daughter May, Rev. Charles Biddle and wife, Miss Josephine Biddle, Marion Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Norris, Miss Marie Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Enos Bloom, Mrs. W. C. Park, Elmer and Park Erhard, of Curwensville, Mrs. Laura Erhard, John Boyce, of Clearfield, Lloyd Bloom, wife and children, Paul Bloom, wife and children, Mrs. Emma Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bloom and children, Mrs. John C. Bloom, Mrs. Gus Arnold, Mrs. Clark Fox and daughter Correlia, Mrs. Edwin Dingman.

"OLD BUCK HUNTER" SELLS HIS FORD

Charley Anderson, of Curwensville, the "old buck hunter," in cleaning up his fall work preparatory to spending the deer season at his camp near the "Rye Patch" on Montgomery creek, found he had a second hand Ford to be disposed of. A 25c ad was inserted in The Progress and soon Charley's troubles ended with a good sale of the "two-handed Henry." He started something when he placed that ad in our classified column and has been receiving so many inquiries about the Ford every mail that he has been almost compelled to hire a private secretary to look after the mail. In a letter received today he states the above facts and asks that we make this statement for him in order that he may get things in shape to go to the mountains December 1st.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Stephen L. Wilson, of Cherrytree, and Sophie E. Hutton, of Clearfield. Harry H. Straw, of Chest township, and Beulah L. Wolfe, of Punxsutawney.

A. G. Robinson and Martha Guenther, both of Winburne.

Carl Wallin and Veronica Rogers, both of DuBois.

Charles R. Palmer, of Woodland, and Ella K. Davis, of Clearfield.

Carl Irwin, of Boggs township, and Lena B. Shugarts, of Goshen township.

Max A. Holt and Alice Maggs, both of Grass Flat.

CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL ENEOWMENT FUND DRIVE ENDS NOV. 27

ARE YOU ONE OF THE GENEROUS?

ARE YOU ENLIGHTENED?

In today's issue of The Progress readers will find a list of all of $200 and upwards that have been reported to headquarters. This is certainly a very creditable list, most of them volunteer subscriptions which adds to the good spirit manifested by the people of the community in thus attesting to the charitable work of the Clearfield Hospital.

The drive will close Saturday, November 27th. If you are not on the list do not delay any longer but send in your subscription so that it may be added to this list and be an incentive to others to do likewise.

Make this drive a success.

Do your full share.

In order to bring our hospital up to the mark where it can take care of the community needs as it has in the past all must help.

EDRA HENDERSON BAUMAN

Mrs. Edra Bauman was born New Years day, 1888, near New Millport. She died October 10, 1920, at her home near Bloomington. She was laid to rest in the Bloomington cemetery. Rev. Dingman, pastor of the Lutheran church of New Millport officiating.

She was a good wife and neighbor. Will be very much missed by her close friends and relatives as she was a woman who never found any pleasure away from her family. She suffered from tuberculosis for over three years. She leaves to mourn, her husband, five small children, four sisters, one brother and her parents. When we leave this land of care, For that other promised land, There will be sisters to meet us With waiting outstretched hands.

METHODISTS WILL MAKE THANKSGIVING OFFERING

The Methodist congregations of Clearfield will follow the custom of Methodist churches throughout the conference in making an offering at Thanksgiving time to the Methodist Home for the aged at Tyrone. The S. S. Blair property has been purchased and the home has been in operation for a year with every available room occupied. An extensive addition is now well under way in course of erection to accommodate a long list of persons who are eligible for admission as soon as the enlarged home is completed.

The church people are taking a great interest in the enterprise which provides a comfortable home for many fine men and women who come to their old age without anyone to take care of them.

The Methodists of the three local churches will make their offerings through the envelopes distributed. The Trinity church people will turn

U. S. SOLDIERS WILL CARRY GAS BOMBS

Future Wars Will Find American Soldier With Cloud Gas Bomb in His Pocket

CHEMICAL WAR BOARD ACTIVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The United States government will not agree to abolish poison gas as a part of its military system. On the contrary, if another great war comes in which the United States is involved, every soldier in our forces will carry a package of poison gas as part of his equipment.

Already the Chemical Warfare Service of the army, of which Brig. Gen. Amos A. Fries is director, has perfected the solidification of poison gas so that it can be carried in a man's pocket. This particular type of gas is designed for gas cloud attacks.

The Chemical Warfare Service is prosecuting research work in poison gases at the Edgewood Arsenal, where it has an up-to-date plant and where two battalions of gas troops are constantly engaged in experiments. Problems of production and distribution as well as the determination of the ingredients of the several gases are being studied constantly.

Experiments are being made with different gases at varying strengths on white mice, rats, guinea pigs and on certain stages on dogs. Experiments in which men subject themselves to gas attacks are few and are handled with the greatest possible care to avoid permanent injury.

The American Chemical Society is co-operating actively with the Chemical Warfare Service, just as Premier Lloyd George announced in Parliament yesterday the British civilian chemists are co-operating with the military in Great Britain in developing poison gas and working out of offensive and defensive problems as well.

A committee of fifteen has been appointed by the American Chemical Society to co-operate directly with the Chemical Warfare Service, and arrangements are now being made for the appointment of another committee of fifty prominent chemists who may be called upon from time to time to assist in solving specific problems.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—More than 31 per cent. of all American soldiers admitted to hospitals overseas during the World war were gassed, according to a statement made public today by the Chemical Warfare Service. Excluding Marine and sailors the total of American soldiers gassed was 70,562, of whom 1,211 died and 2,853 or 4.04 per cent were discharged as having suffered some disability from gassing.

SUPT. OF LANCASTER WATER WORKS DROWNED

LANCASTER, Nov. 18.—Franklin Barrett, superintendent of the city water works, was drowned here this morning when caught in the "race" near the dam. Barrett fought gamely for his life but was unable to overcome the pressure of the water.

MRS. HARRY MORGAN DIES

Mrs. Harry Morgan (nee Jennie Sargeant) of lower Woodland died early this morning. Mrs. Morgan leaves a week old babe, three little sons and a sorrowing husband.

Almost Paradise on Earth.

In the fortunate Bermudas there are no reptiles to alarm; the indigenous small lizard is not even dangerous in appearance, and the green turtle is translatable into delicious soup. Of birds and fish the islands have a splendid store; Bermudians would not starve to death even should the importation of meat from this country cease.

Pork Pies Prohibited by Treaty.

By a clause in a special treaty concluded soon after the first Punjab war the maharajah of Kashmir has the right—which he exercises—of prohibiting the importation into his territories of pork pies.

In their offering at next Sunday's service, The West Side and Eleventh street churches make their contribution each week later, Sunday the 28th.

PENNSY ASKED TO IMPROVE ITS TRAIN SERVICE

Hops For Addition of Cars to Moving Trains So Travelers May Cook Lunch

BUDGETS BUDGETERS SAVORING

The Pennsylvania freight and express, which also hauls freight, fueling, farming, furrows, follow citizens as passengers between Tyrone and this town, one which was scheduled to arrive here at 11:15 when the schedule was printed but hardly ever accomplished that feat when the train was issued, runched in to the Pennsylvania station at 12:15 again today, equaling yesterday's record.

Every fellow on the train was liable except those Dulles traveling men who were simply added to death with our train. They were able to work their trade at Gettysburg, Philadelphia and Clearfield and engaged at each point to get back and aboard the train before the busy express crew had succeeded in unloading the express baggage for the towns named. These fellows had left one fault to find with the service, but in a joint letter to Rep. Johnson this afternoon they made mention of their fault and suggest a remedy.

After telling the "Bugs" how pleased they were at having the train halt at the principal stations while they went out and sold a bill to their half dozen or more customers, they made bold to ask that a change be introduced to the train to offer better service. They suggested that every passenger might better travel along the route and cook their lunch and take their coffee at the stove in the advanced coaches while waiting for the freight to be unloaded.

The Tyrone Division it is said did a business of eleven millions of dollars last year, with an operating expense of six millions, and we are to hope that there will be enough of this surplus left to add this suggested improvement to the most excellent passenger and mail service—we are not getting on this branch.

It might be possible for the Public Service Commission to do something for us along this line. They didn't build us a N. Y. C. station by a dam site below the Second street bridge yet, but they might do something for us in this matter. Answer we hope so—yes.

PATRONAGE IN POLITICS

"Without patronage," writes Norman E. Mack to The World "party effort dwindles to mere perfunctory performance, a state of affairs that is bound to have disastrous consequences on Election Day." Mr. Mack is the Democratic National Committeeman from New York and his opinion is the product of wide experience in politics, but he does not make a convincing case for the spoilsman.

More than thirty-five years ago Samuel J. Tilden, writing to Henry Watterson, expressed in striking fashion his own opinion of the relation of patronage to political leadership:

I depended on ideas as a political force more liberally and less on party machinery than anybody else has done. What is called patronage I never had to any appreciable extent, and yet I held my ascendancy with the Democratic masses of this State when I had to confront the adverse influence of the Executive, of the heads of departments, of the judiciary, and of the majority of both branches of the legislature and of one-third of the county leaders. I held also a majority of the voters of this State against at least 20,000 office-holders.

Nothing is easier than to overestimate the political influence of office-holders. No President ever used patronage more carefully or indifferently than Mr. Wilson. It has been said, and not unjustly, that most of his appointments weakened rather than strengthened his Administration; yet he is the only Democratic President since Andrew Jackson who was elected to succeed himself.

Mr. Cleveland controlled all the Federal patronage and used it ruthlessly; yet he could not prevent the Free-Silver Democrats from asking the National Convention and repudiating his Administration.

Mr. Taft had all the Republican patronage in 1913 and the State Republican organizations were for the most part friendly to him, but he could not keep his party together, and on the division his faction polled fewer votes than the Roosevelt bolters.

If Mr. Mack wishes more recent examples of the importance of patronage let him examine the election returns from two States New York and Ohio. Both of these States had Democratic Governors, and one of these Governors was himself the party candidate for President. All the Federal office-holders in these States were Democrats. The Governor's appointees were Democrats. In New York City the patronage of the Municipal Government was in the hands of Tammany Hall. Look at Harding's plurality of more than 1,000,000 in this State. Look at his vote in Ohio, which was regarded as a doubtful State. Could there have been a more perfunctory Democratic performance, as Mr. Mack would call it, if there had not been a single Democrat on the payroll in either State?

All the political patronage in the country would not have saved the Democratic party in this election. The country wanted a change and had convinced itself that it could re-establish the comfortable pre-war conditions by the simple process of turning the Democrats out and turning the Republicans in. If it finds it made a mistake it will be quite as eager to turn the Republicans out and the Democrats in, by way of redressing the balance. That is how the collective mind works in periods of stress.

There was a time when patronage was unquestionably a determining factor in American politics. It is still a factor in deciding nominations, because nominations are made by party organizations regardless of direct-primary laws; but elections are another story. If parties really depended on patronage, majority parties could never be dislodged and minority parties could never return to power.

Mr. Tilden was wise in depending on ideas as a political force. It is the only force which in the long run can prevail, and as the social and economic interests of the country increase in importance, that force becomes correspondingly powerful, while the influence of the mere office-holder dwindles and wanes."—N. Y. World.

Human Thermometer. At the top of the kiln (at the famous pottery works of King Teebel, China), and in the chimney are holes a foot square, into which a man, who acts as a human thermometer, looks to determine the heat. His method is simple. He splits into the hole, and if the spit turns to steam, the temperature is not sufficient. When the heat is so great that the saliva is shot back at him with a little explosion, everything is all right.--John Knight Shryock in Asia.

In South America. A visitor to South America, speaking of his observations there said: "The home life of the people is so full of music that even the 'newspaper' sing their wares, and peanuts, and advertise fresh fruit and cool water are advertised in recitative. Such itinerant artisans as sawyers grinders announce their advent by means of a piccolo. The tired workmen still solace their evening hours with the guitar and the phonograph is to be found in the houses of all but the poorest classes."

Dreaming of Skating. To dream of skating denotes that your success is very uncertain and depends largely upon your efforts. To see others skate denotes a pleasant time. To buy, them, honor.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

D. P. Yocum, an employee of the Carnowath mines had the third finger of his right hand so badly crushed on Thursday forenoon that it was necessary to amputate below the second joint. He was working at repairs on a mining machine and his hand was caught in a wheel. Dr. Erhard, of this place, dressed the injured hand.

Two small boys, whose parents reside out on the Bailey road, near town, were playing with a revolver Thursday forenoon. The weapon was loaded with a blank cartridge.
The elder boy pointed the gun at his brother, and snapped the hammer.
The cartridge exploded and the contents entered the lad's eye and cheek.
Drs. Blair and Erhard were called and extracted the powder grains from the eyeball and flesh. The wound is a very painful one and may injure the eyesight unless good care is taken of it.

Quite a number of children living on South Side are confined to their homes suffering from severe colds, etc., and are unable to attend school in consequence. A good preventative to keep the little ones healthful is warm clothing and good shoes for the feet. We have noticed within the few days past quite a number of small folks who come to the school building long before the bell rings in the morning and stand outside shivering with cold, some of them hardly dressed warm enough for inside the house.

NOTED STAR DANCER COMING NOV. 26TH

Miss Margaret Ladd who will appear here Friday night, November 26th in the High School auditorium, with the de Pro Grand Opera Star was engaged last year as Premier Danseuse of the New Orleans Opera Company. Miss Ladd the young American dancer has appeared in all the principal cities of Italy, France and England. By the way Miss Ladd was fortunate to escape with her life when the Opera Houses at New Orleans burnt. Miss Ladd had gone to her dressing room to save her expensive costume, while she was found unconscious and was carried out of the theatre by the firemen. Unfortunately Miss Ladd was one of the heaviest losers of the company, losing all of her costumes. Miss Ladd recently returned from abroad where she replenished her wardrobe. She will open the program with the Marie Antonette dance.

"The Man Beneath"

Can a man's service to humanity, a service which elevates him to the pinnacle of a high profession, which wins for him the recognition of the world's greatest scholars, remove the ban of blood? Can the man whose face is red, or brown, or black demand equal social privileges in a white man's land? These absorbing questions are splendidly treated in this latest of Sessé Hayakawa's screen dramas, a picturization of Edmund Mitchell's famous book.

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information

All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove of benefit to many women:

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I suffered with organic inflammation and I displayed all the usual symptoms of the disease. When lifting I had such pain and bearing down that I was not able to stand up and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor without any results and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I read a lady who told me she had three operations and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and after two bottles of Vegetable Compound I am feeling on with it until I was cured. I always use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my friends and I use it to turn sour milk into buttermilk and the Liver Pills helped me. —Mrs. A. Rogers, 533 E. 10th Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y."

Madam- This Weather Was Made For These Coats at a 30 % CUT

Beautiful coats they are, too. Snappy models of today's fashion dictates from the warmest of materials. Some have fur collars and cuffs—saving not only the 30 per cent. but also the price of a set of furs. You MUST see them especially.

Big New Shipment For Saturday's Selling

Great Weather to Take Advantage of This 30 Off On All Stein-Bloch Suits and Overcoats

This cold snap has accentuated the wonderful values in this November re-adjustment Sales. The snappier weather—the snow—the general wintry look that things have taken on—these and the exceptional goodness of the Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes make a combination that is most timely.

Remember—you can figure your own prices. Just deduct 30 per cent. from the marked selling price, find a suit or overcoat that fits and we've both been made happy.

OPTOMETRISTS

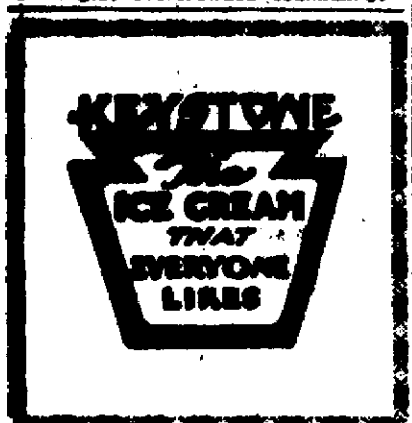

Mrs. Grant Ogden, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Murphy leave today for Orleans to spend a few days with their sister Mrs. Painter.

Mrs. and Mr. John McNamee and two children from Pittsburgh, are visiting her mother Mrs. Patsy Dabett for a few days.

On Solid Foundation.
Certain world-old principles are the basis of every form of representative government, and each succeeding era has proven the soundness of these fundamentals. The clock may strike thirteen, but this is no proof of anything other than that it is in need of repair.—Kavanaugh.

Shoreman Punchbowl.
An enormous silver punchbowl in Windsor castle, which cost $50,000, is capable of holding eight gallons and, on the occasion of the wedding of the prince of Wales (Edward VII), was filled with 250 bottles of mullied claret.

"Poor Whites" of Porto Rico.
Now was servitude confined to Africa. Spain long used Porto Rico as a penal colony, and when public works no longer required them, the convicts were turned loose to shift for themselves. Most of them took to the mountains, where the "poor whites" population is numerous to this day. Yet the lower population are no more criminal than the Americans; if there is much petty thieving, it is natural in a hungry, overworked community.

AN ENEMY TO GOOD HEALTH
Good health has no greater enemy than constipation. You cannot "keep fit" for work or play if the bowels are irregular or clogged with a decomposed mass of undigested food from which the blood picks up disease-causing impurities and carries them throughout the entire system. Piles, hemorrhoids, are mild but Piles, Catarrh, Biliousness, indigestion, sour stomach, constipation, are caused by indigestion. Get one tonight and you will feel better in the morning.

Thanksgiving Sales

Starting Friday, November 19th., 1920

Today, this store, built on the foundation of public service, shoulders its share of the responsibility of leveling down costs. The new market prices are lower and in order to meet, and in these sales, beat the present market prices we are making remarkable reductions in all departments. We proudly admit that in many cases we are selling our new fall stock below what it actually cost us but we stand ready to do this in order that we may retain the confidence of our customers and do our share toward getting merchandising conditions back to normal. In every case we give you the benefit of the new lowered prices.

MILLINERY SALE

1-3 OFF ON EVERY WINTER HAT IN THE STORE

We place on sale our entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Hats at 1-3 off the regular prices. This includes all of our new Winter Hats. The regular prices are all marked on the hats and you buy them for 1-3 less than they are marked. Inspection will show you that this is an unequalled opportunity to get a fine quality winter hat.

Suits

1-3 Off On All Winter Suits

We are giving 1-3 or 33 1-3 Per Cent off on all of our Ladies' and Misses' Fall and Winter Suits. This means every suit we have in stock. These garments are all of excellent quality and not especially bought for sale purposes. The suits are all marked at the regular prices. When you buy you deduct 1-3 from that price.

The old prices range from $25.00 to $95.00 so this means a saving of $8.33 to $31.61 on every suit purchased.

Buy at once so that you will have the advantage of selecting from our large stock before it is depleted.

The suits are made in high grade Tricotine, Veldyne, Serge, Plain Silvertone, Velours and Broadcloths. They come in all the popular shades including such low, Japan, Joffe Blue, Navy Blue, Reindeer, Taupe and Black.

Proper Ambition.

It is very sad for a man to make himself servant to a thing, his manhood all taken out of him by the hydraulic pressure of a business. I should not like to be merely a great doctor, a great lawyer, a great minister, a great politician—I should like to be also something of a man.—Theodore Parker.

Taking Nothing Along.

The womanly woman's idea of traveling light, as we have learned from actual observation, is to crowd everything else into a steamer trunk and then carry all her hats in separate boxes.—Grand Rapids Press.

Drum With Harmonics.

Musicians find the drum an unsatisfactory instrument for lack of harmonic overtones. From India comes the description of a drum the parchment head of which is loaded with an adherent composition containing finely divided iron. Such composition lies in a central circle. Around the edge a second ring-shaped membrane is secured and the effect of the loading is to produce good harmonic overtones.

Manganese.

Manganese is found in Japan in three forms: Metallic, which is over 50 per cent pure manganese, being used principally in the making of certain kinds of iron and steel and as an amalgam; dioxide, or "black manganese," having as high as 90 per cent manganese and largely used in the making of chemicals, drugs, paints and electric batteries; and carbonate ore, which until recently has been a waste product in Japan.

Spaces Between Words.

The custom of separating words by a blank space in writing was not employed until the Tenth century.

Invention of Electric Light.

The credit for the basic discovery of the electric light is probably due to Sir Humphry Davy, who in 1810 observed the electric arc and produced incandescence of a fine platinum wire in connection with his experiments with a 2,000-cell battery. In 1862 an arc lamp was installed in the lighthouse at Dungeness, in 1879 the Edison incandescent lamp was exhibited, and in 1882 the Pearl Street Edison station in New York was put in service.
